Application for Membership

The Greek Archaeological Committee UK was founded in 1986 by the late Matti Xylas-Egon, as a charitable organisation to support Greek archaeology and through it Greece and her cultural heritage. GACUK's main objective is to create educational opportunities for talented Greek and Greek Cypriot scholars of limited means and enable them to undertake post-graduate studies in Greek archaeology in leading universities in the UK.

By becoming a member/donor of the Greek Archaeological Committee UK you will be contributing to the funding of the Committee's scholarships.
